

INDEX

	PAGE
Introduction by Mr. Robert E. Speer	v
Author's Introduction	ix

CHAPTER I

THE SHANS

Reign of Pra-Ruage ; early Shan history ; principal branches of Shans; original home ; Pushed south-ward; gunpowder, Ayuthia founded ; the term "Laos" ; under Four flags ; Laos provinces ; tributary to Siam ; cruel treatment of king ; Government of Laos provinces ; Lao Shans superior	I
---	---

CHAPTER II

SIAM AND ITS CAPITAL

Kingdom recently delimited; territory governed by Siam; King Chulalongkorn I; effect of Union of church and state : palace life; visit to palace; Wat Pra Kian : royal white Elephants; things that bind to the past; location of Bangkok; the Me Nam; river Scene; trolley line; floating houses; shopping in Bangkok; owes existence to trade; Yet not traders	9
--	---

CHAPTER III

SIX WEEKS IN A SIX-BY-SEVEN

How to reach Laos-land; Laos boats; distance; poling of boats; boat life and crew; journal; Leaving Bangkok; first night out; royal procession; Czarewitch; hot weather, first Sabbath out; thieves; a leper witness; follow canal; drinking river water, language; Second Sabbath; unique church service; a mountain climb; ruins; glorious view; Fever; nearing Pak Nam Po; value of mosquito net	25
---	----

CHAPTER IV

FROM PAK NAM PO TO RAHENG

At Pak Nam Po; in the Me Ping; a pleasant change; stop at wat; sick ones better; night stop at sand Bar; third Sabbath out; Soft sunsets; Chinaman's boat from chieng Mai; cooler nights; crew fish daily; a narrow escape from capsizing; a second danger; in a village below Raheng; Spinning, broken leg; fourth Sabbath from Bangkok; description of Raheng; leaking boats; Mishap to boat ; party divides 49

CHAPTER V

THE END OF THE JOURNEY

On the Me Wang; compared with Me Ping; fifth Sabbath out; fever; in a village; industrious Laos Family; fever worse; in the mountains; the rapids; beautiful scenery; crew and morning Plunge; in Laos-land at last; river very low; river gardens; reed-blowing; a log jam; at Lampang Kang with Christians; nearing Lakawn 63

CHAPTER VI

THE FACE OF LAOS-LAND

Laos roads; physical features; the climate; seasons; the damp; lavish nature; rapids of Me Nan; Ferns and orchids ; vegetables ; mangoes ; the tamarind tree ; pineapples and other fruits; Valuable woods; teak; upas; gamboge; lac insect; bamboo and its uses; staple crops 74

CHAPTER VII

THE FACE OF LAOS-LAND (CONTINUED)

Range of animal life; tigers and stories; water buffaloes; leaf insects; chakims; butterflies; "White ants" or termites; elephants; White elephants; elephant characteristics; Camel-like; mineral wealth 90

CHAPTER VIII
THE HEART OF LAOS-LAND

Marriage as a foundation; the Laos as a race; woman's position; not due to Buddhism; custom of Wooing and wedding; divorce laws; property in hands of women; illustrations; dress of men; Hairless skins; dress of women; black teeth; betel chew; young women attractive; change in Dress; homes of the Laos; house-building; furnishing of houses; kitchen; food; ha a delicacy; A table; cimex lectularius; free from both cares and joys of civilization 99

CHAPTER IX
CHAUS AND SERFDOM

Idea of greatness; corvee laws; wealth of chaus; slaves; chaus refined, but self-seeking; a parasitical Life; illustrations; story of Ai Phat; when in public; Prince Damrong's visit; diplomatic Receipt; bribery; secret of state of stagnation 120

CHAPTER X
CHARACTERISTICS AND AMUSEMENTS

The voice; markets; force of custom; lying; idea of heaven; New Year festival; Loy Katong Holidays; end of Lent; his majesty's birthday; theaters; dancing at palace ; how girls are obtained; ba-taw; footfall of people; deft in carving; noted for geniality 131

CHAPTER XI
LANGUAGE AND A TRIO OF UNIQUE CUSTOMS

Grammatical construction of language; the tones; consonants and vowels; pronouns; poetically Paraphrastic expressions; choice of names; prefixes for males; for females; tattooing; Methods of tattooing; burial of dead; wailing dead; cremation; preparing body; the Catafalque; services at cremation; cost; smoldering ashes 143

CHAPTER XII

OCCUPATION AND INDUSTRIES

No corporations; petty trading; Yunnan and Burmese traders; silver and goldsmiths; paper
Manufacture; lacquer ware : rice cultivation; sprouting beds; transplanting;
Irrigation; harvest; cattle trains; portable restaurants ; literature and art 159

CHAPTER XIII

CHILD LIFE

A Land of children; treatment at birth; care of mother; flat heads; games; rhymes and jingles;
Folk-lore stories; cut leaves from flower stems; education of boys 169

CHAPTER XIV

A LOOK AT BUDDHISM

A Buddhist nation; Buddhist beatitudes; extracts from Dhamma-pada; eightfold sacred formula;
In from; in nature; meat-eating ; drinkin ; no soul; re-incarnation; “ incomprehensible Mystery” ; merit ; “grapes of thorns” ; a selfish religion 178

CHAPTER XV

LAOS WATS

The three tenets of Buddhism held; wats pleasing to eye; more a monastery than a temple;
the Wihara; display of gold; idols and shrines; dormitories; wat luangs; libraries;
drum Towers; prachedis; sand festival; footprints of Buddha; wats are also inns;
a dedication Of an idol; merrymakings; fireworks; wats typical of heart religion 193

CHAPTER XVI

THE SHAVED HEAD AND THE YELLOW ROBE

Vows not life; ceremony of receiving into order; to full ordination; robes of monks; the color;
A monk's abbots and how appointed; laws and rules that bind monks; nonobservance of Laws; supposed daily routine of monks; novitiate's duties; exceptional monks;
why they do not influence their fellow-men 211

CHAPTER XVII

SPIRIT-WORSHIP AND TREATMENT OF THE SICK

Why Buddhism was adopted by Shans, and not Christianity ; all unusual occurrences accounted for as Supernatural ; house blown down; preparations for a journey; spirit charms; ta leo; Chau Chiwit and charms; drowning; spirit groves; threatened famine; Kwan; origin of spirits; Magic; cave at Chieng Dow; amulets and omens; two kinds of disease; first class treated By doctors; second class by spirit-doctors; exorcism; treatment of witches ; awful shadow Over life 224

CHAPTER XVIII

THE ORGANIZATION AND EARLY DAYS OF THE MISSION

The Laos have a knowledge of sin; need of Christianity ; mission an outgrowth of Siam mission; Roman Catholic missions in Siam; testimony of government to Protestant missions; Dr. Gutzlaff; dark days from Siam mission; Fah Mong Kut ascends the throne; a new era for Siam; Ann Hazeltine Judson; Messrs. McGilvary and Willson assigned to Siam; points of interest in their lives; John Leighton Wilson; Dr. Lefevre; Mrs. Wilson's death; Dr. McGilvary Marriage; assigned to Petchaburee; tour into Laos; 1867, Laos mission established by Dr. McGilvary ; early days at Chieng Mai; medical work; coming of Dr. and Mrs. Wilson; building of bridge; two years in sala; difficulties and encouragements; foundations laid 244

CHAPTER XIX

THE FIRST GROWTH AND PERSECUTION

First convert ; story of conversion; death of His Majesty Mong Kut; seven converts; sickness and Death ; first persecution; martyrdom; heavy cloud over mission; commissioner sent from Bangkok; interview with king; apparent failure of mission; faith of missionaries; God's Deliverance ; Dr. House's visit ; effect of persecution 263

CHAPTER XX

THE SECOND PERSECUTION AND EXPANSION

First medical missionary; tour of whole country ; some conversions of 1876; second persecution; Marriage of Kam Tip; proclamation of religious liberty; organization of Bethlehem church; Lakawn church; story of first member there; death of Nan Inta; new missionaries; Lakawn Station established; Me Dork Deng church; new missionaries; year of grace; church at Chieng Sen ; Lampun ; mission moves forward 281

CHAPTER XXI

CHIENG MAI, THE FAIR CITY OF PALMS

City of Palms ; Doi Su Tep; tea gardens; points of interest about Chieng Mai; mission press; its Work; medical compound and immense work there; work among lepers; prisoners; Mission work, evangelistic and philanthropic ; parochial schools ; theological and training Schools : Dr. McGilvary's home; work among the Ka Mus; "P.H. and P.A." ; Chieng Mai Church ; last look at city 292

CHAPTER XXII

LAKAWN, PRE, NAN, AND CHIENG RAI

At Lampun; greatest missionary trial; rest at Me Ta; climb over the mountains; Lakawn; Industrial farm; north compound; medical work; Dr. Wilson's house; the church; Work of the wives; famine; visible changes; at Pre; one man for a whole year; at Nan; encouraging features; at Chieng Rai; strategic importance; Musus; development of Laos Church; need for missionaries; Laos day of isolation past; dangers; obligations to Presbyterian Church 311

APPENDIX

Chart of Tai Race 331
List of Laos missionaries 333
The Shan uprising 336