ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I would like to express my appreciation to all my teachers in TESOL Department at Payap University for guiding me to the field of TESOL and helping me in my study life. I would particularly like to express my heartfelt thanks to my main thesis supervisor Dr. Graeme Ritchie for his constant patience, guidance, support, and academic excellence. His guidance was my Polaris which illuminated my direction of writing. Without his help, this study would not be possible. I would like to show my respects and appreciation to Dr. Jonathan Leather for his great patience, guidance and support. The stimulating environment in the classrooms of Dr. Graeme Ritchie and Dr. Jonathan Leather was the soil of the ideas for this study. I would like to thank Aj. Philip Keay for his encouragement, patience, guidance and tolerance, and all his invaluable suggestions and references.

I especially appreciate Professor Xiong, the president of Yuxi Teachers College and Ms. Zhu, the dean of Foreign Language Department, for giving me this opportunity to study at Payap University.

I would like to express my heartfelt thanks to my colleagues and the students who took part in the process of data collection of this thesis work.

I would also like to acknowledge my appreciation to my dear aunt who has taken the responsibility for looking after my son since I left home. Without her, the whole study life at Payap University would not be possible.

Last but not least, I give thanks to my husband and my son, for their love, support, and encouragement. Their love was the source of courage for me to cope with the difficulties in my life and study in Thailand.
