ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First of all, I am heartily thankful to God for giving me the opportunity to study MA. TESOL at Payap University. He has been doing countless wonderful things and making the impossible possible in my life. May this be a testament to Him and glorify His name.

My deepest gratitude goes to my thesis advisor Dr. Jenjit Gasigijtamong for her invaluable guidance, encouragement and patience. Without her help, this would not have been possible.

I owe my deepest gratitude to Mrs. Anita Schulenburg and her family, the Eubanks family for having faith in me and supporting me both financially and with prayers. I am grateful to Thapyay and SGPB Supplementary Grant Program – Burma (Myanmar) which supported me with partial living expenses during my study.

I also would like to show my great appreciation to Dr. Pearl Wattanakul (Head of TESOL), Dr. Jenjit Gasigijtamong (my supervisor), Dr. Jonathan Leather, Dr. Graeme Ritchie, Aj. David Richards and Aj. Philip Keay for educating me with love, concern and encouragement throughout my studies. Moreover, I would like to express my appreciation to the members of my committee, Dr. Wanida Penkingarn, Dr. Pearl Wattanakul and Dr. Jenjit Gasigijtamong for their outstanding advice. My special thanks goes to the teachers and staff from Payap University who have helped me in many different ways.

I would like to extend my thanks to the current and previous principal, dean, assistant dean, teachers, all the participants from the Bachelor of Arts in Religious Studies program at Myanmar Institute of Theology for their whole hearted participation in this study.

Most importantly, I would like to express my earnest thanks and utmost respect to my mother who has been a constant strength for me and my father who is with Him.

To them I dedicate this thesis.

Last but not least, I am indebted to my family, relatives, and friends for the many ways they support me. They are the most wonderful people in my life because they always help me get through the difficult times, provide me with their prayer and emotional support and offer me camaraderie and care.

Thank you all and May God pour his everlasting blessings upon you!
