

129430

TDC 113 ✓

T856/

A PHONOLOGICAL DESCRIPTION OF LEINONG NAGA

Ahsi James Wayesha

Presented to Payap University in Partial Fulfillment of the Requirements for the Degree of
MASTER OF ARTS IN LINGUISTICS
Faculty of Arts

Payap University
May 2010

Title : A Phonological Description of Leinong Naga
Researcher : Ahsi James Wayesha
Degree : Master of Arts in Linguistics
Payap University, Chiang Mai, Thailand
Main Advisor : Phinnarat Akharawatthanakun, Ph.D.
Approval Date : 7 May 2010

The members of the thesis examination committee:

1. Somsonge Burusphat Committee Chair
(Professor Somsonge Burusphat, Ph.D.)
2. Phinnarat Akharawatthanakun Committee Member
(Phinnarat Akharawatthanakun, Ph.D.)
3. Larin Adams Committee Member
(Larin Adams, Ph.D.)

This thesis is accepted as partial fulfillment of the requirements for the degree of Master of Arts in Linguistics.

Aj. Malee Kongwannit
Aj. Malee Kongwannit
Dean of the Faculty of Arts

Copyright © James Wayesha 2010
All Rights Reserved

PAYAP UNIVERSITY

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First of all I would like to thank God, who began a good work in me and has led me to the completion of the course of my studies at Payap (Phi: 2:18), to Him be the glory forever and ever!

I would like to express my thanks to SIL International for granting me a scholarship to educate and equip myself for linguistics studies at Payap University. I am grateful to all of my professors for imparting your knowledge without reservation

Thank you! Dr. Phinnarat Akharawatthanakun, my main advisor, for making yourself available whenever I needed your assistance and giving me such insightful suggestions, and helped throughout my thesis process. I really do appreciate you for sending me reminders about my weekly progress report. Beside my advisor, I would like to thank the rest of my thesis committee members: Dr. Larin Adams and Dr. Somsonge Burusphat.

I must not forget to thank Dr. Gum Seng Shae, whom I had privilege to know through my sibling Barak, and who introduced me to Jeff German, my mentor.

My thanks and gratitude also goes to Jeff and Marilyn German for your constant encouragement and prayer. It still echoes what you said, "I am with you" when my daughter Christina was seriously sick in my first year of school. It means a lot to me as far as my study here at Payap is concerned. In fact it was a big challenge for me then, but now I am more confident in what I do. Jeff, you are wonderful mentor!

I also would like to thank all of my classmates for your friendship and being supportive. Especially, Ellie Hall, thanks for proof-reading help and teaching me the correct use of "such as" in English and you are amazing at picking up every single spelling mistake. Also, Kristen Herr I like the way you want to keep my Lisu English as it is and natural.

Thank you Daniel and Thamami Arisawa for your warm, friendly welcome and help extended to our family when we first arrived in Thailand. Dr. Jesse Yangmi you will not know what your appreciative heart and words for linguistics studies have meant to me personally.

My special thanks also go to U. Maung Nyan and Daw. Ong Yin for your warm hospitality during my thesis research works. My thanks and appreciations also go to the members of Central Committee of Naga Culture and Literature, Khamti, and Committee of Leinong Naga Culture and Literature, Lahe. Thank you Anoi Sai Nyu for your help and interest in linguistics. Thank you to all the Naga friends who helped me write this thesis.

I am so indebted to my dearly loved mother, Ahna Noyehdweh for your unconditional love, encouragement, and constant prayer support. Not only that, also thanks to all of my siblings: Barak, Lydia, and Miriam for being so proud of me.

Most of all, thank you Esther Wayesha, my beloved wife, for your never-ending love and support, without them this thesis would not be born. In fact, personally it has been the most beautiful, precious and invaluable time where we learnt the arts of listening, understanding and caring for each other in the midst of both being busy students, at the same time a busy mom and dad.

Finally, Christina, our little sweet heart, thank you so much for making Dad and Mom's lives much easier throughout our studies by being sweet, lovely and understanding.

James Wayesha

7th May 2010.

DEDICATION

This thesis is dedicated to express my thanks and gratitude to the Morse family for bringing the gospel message of hope to the Northern and other Lisu people with the passion of Christ.

And in memory of my father, Ahdeu Wayesha (1930-1986) a missionary to the Naga people of Myanmar, who taught me to always stand on the truth and who inspired me to have interest in the Naga people. Little did he know where it would lead.

PAYYAP UNIVERSITY