ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This research could not be completed without the help of the following people. Thus, I would like to take this opportunity to express my gratitude to all of them who assisted me in doing this research. My appreciation is expressed first of all to Dr. Jenjit Gasigijtamong, my advisor, for her invaluable suggestions, discussions, encouragement, and patience throughout this study. My thanks are also for Dr. Jonathan Leather for his outstanding guidance. Furthermore, I would like to thank Dr. Lamar G. Robert who devoted himself in analyzing the data.

In addition, my special thanks go to Ajann Chutarat Dethwongya from Puttisopon School who has watched over me throughout the duration of my study. My appreciation goes to Miss. Kanyarat Eumumporn from Payap Research and Development Institute for her advice concerning the statistic results. Moreover, I would like to thank all my friends in the TEFL program. My special thanks also go to Ajann Tavee Netisingha who encouraged me several times to finish this study.

Last but not least, my deepest gratitude goes to my^v parents who gave me a chance to study at Payap University and for their financial and emotional support throughout this study.
