ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

My study would not have been possible without the guidance and love of my Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Therefore, I would like to praise His name and express my deepest gratitude to Him.

I am very grateful to many people who have assisted me through this study. My appreciation is first expressed to Dr. Jenjit Gasigijtamong, my thesis supervisor, who had guided me throughout this study. I wish to express my sincere gratitude to her for her valuable advice, insightful comments and enormous patience. My thanks are also for Dr. Pearl Wattanakul for never given up on me and encouraged me several times to finish this study.

In addition, my appreciation goes to Saw Lay K'paw for his assistance in statistic. I would also like to express my appreciation to all the participants in my study.

Last but not least, my deepest gratitude and utmost respect goes to my parents, and my brothers and sisters who have supported me financially, morally and spiritually throughout my studies.
